Dear Marcie,

I am writing today to THANK YOU for opening doors for me!
You are giving me opportunities to make my business grow. No more time wasted!

Marcie, from the get go I loved your concept and equally impressed with all the serious business professionals I've met thus far. I can see how business opportunities are created simply by interacting between members. Bottom line, it's about meeting people, building relationships, making contacts and growing a successful business.

Being a Professional Meeting Planner, most of our business is exclusively based on word-of-mouth. Your company, 'Let's Get Going' is a perfect fit for us to generate any new business. It is easy to see with your business matchmaking skills, the opportunities are and can be endless.

Thank you, Marcie.

my kindest regards,

Daniela Caputo, Event Management
